One Stop Medical Center Receives the Accreditation from the Institute of Medical Quality (IMQ)

Edina, MN (September 2013) – Dr. Steven Shu, MD, MBA, and his dedicated staff at One Stop Medical Center are pleased to announce the Office-based Surgical Facility Accreditation from the Institute of Medical Quality (IMQ).

“It’s an honor to be recognized as a top-rate facility. We are extremely pleased to receive IMQ accreditation,” said Dr. Steven Shu, owner and surgeon of One Stop Medical Center. “We work extremely hard to uphold the highest standards of patient care. For our patients, this serves as validation of the rigorous standards of safety, professionalism and quality care by our clinic.”

IMQ, headquartered out of San Francisco, Calif., is a nationally respected and renowned non-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of care provided to patients across the continuum of health care. The IMQ Ambulatory Care Review Program includes a rigorous review of the facility’s clinical staff credentials, patient medical record-keeping practices, calibration, and maintenance of medical equipment and other safety measures. Facilities are also subjected to an on-site survey by physician peers before a final decision is rendered by the IMQ Ambulatory Care Review Committee.

One Stop Medical Center provides patients with the most comprehensive office procedure services, emphasizing minimal invasion and local anesthesia. OSMC offers the most extensive range of state-of-the-art technologies in the state of Minnesota, with equipment serving every area of office medical and cosmetic procedures.

Dr. Shu is a board certified laser surgeon and an expert of office procedures in the United States. He has adopted countless revolutionary techniques to achieve ideal results with more efficiency affordability and safety.
